

Responsible AI with Microsoft

March 2025

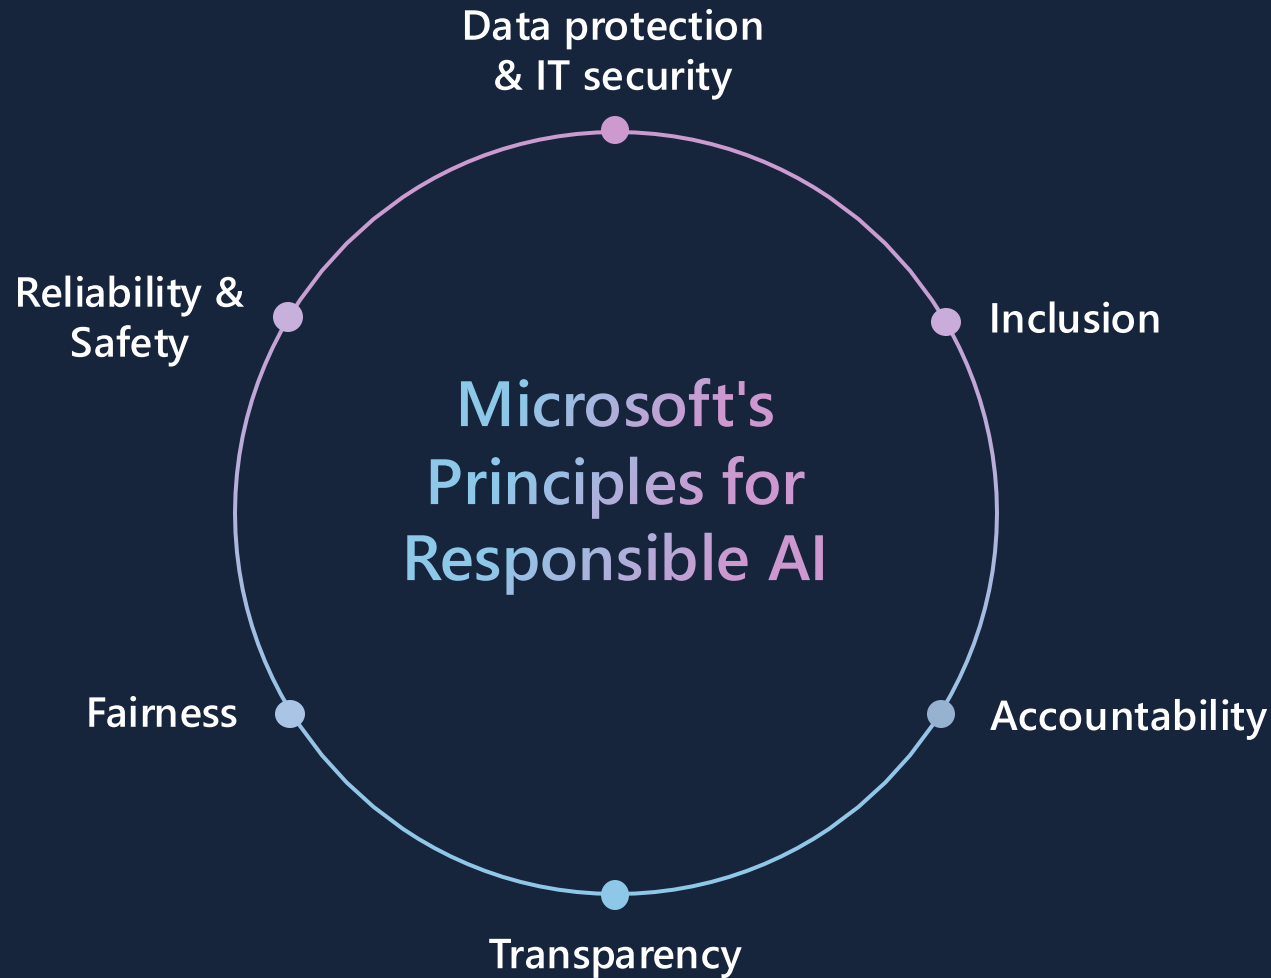

Microsoft's Approach to AI

“

We have made huge investments in AI because we're optimistic about what it can do to help people, industry and society, and because we're committed to bringing technology and people together to realize the promises of AI responsibly.

Microsoft's approach to Responsible AI

Building blocks for implementing the principles

Tools and processes

Training and Practice

Policies

Governance

Resources

- Microsoft On the Issues Blog (Natasha Crampton): <https://aka.ms/EUAIActBlog>
- Responsible AI Transparency Report: Responsible AI Transparency Report
- Trust Center Page: <https://aka.ms/EUAIAct>
- EU AI Act Infographic: <https://aka.ms/EUAIAct-Infographic>
- EU AI Act Overview: <https://aka.ms/EUAIActOverview>
- Prohibited Practices (1-Pager): <https://aka.ms/EUAIAct-ProhibitedPractices>
- AI Literacy Starting Guide: <https://aka.ms/EUAIAct-AILiteracy>
- Advancing AI governance in Europe and internationally: Advancing AI governance in Europe and internationally - EU Policy Blog
- CCC: Introducing the Microsoft Copilot Copyright Commitment | Microsoft Community Hub
- Extension of CCC to Partners: partner.microsoft.com/en-US/blog/article/accelerating-growth-through-partners-in-the-era-of-ai

Scan this code to access responsible AI resources from Microsoft:

